CASUALTIES.

Loss of the Iron Steamer Pallas, With Thirty Lives.

Port Huron, Nov. 20.—News from Sand Beach reports serious accidents at the harbor. The steam barge J. R. Whitney, with the schooners Bahama and Emma C. Hutchinson in tow, struck the lower reef and went ashore.

The Whiting worked over the reef and sunk in twenty feet of water.

There was about twenty sail of vessels off the point. Many of them tried to make the harbor all about the same time, when they became tangled and dragged into one another, doing immense damage.

Full reports have not been received yet.

TERRIBLE GALE.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 20.—One of the heaviest gales this season began here about midnight, and for several hours the wind blew forty miles per hour.

It is now blowing hard, with a light snow, and getting colder.

The schooner Juniata, while being towed into the harbor last night, was struck by a squall. The tugmen let go the line, and the schooner soon drifted off east of the piers, and struck on the piles. She was scuttled to prevent her going to pieces.

The schooner Sooco, which went ashore at Fairport Tuesday night, went to pieces this morning. No insurance.

STEAMER FOUNDERED.

Oswego, Nov. 20.—The schooner Samuel Cary, from Toledo to this point, is ashore at Port Colburne and nearly full of water. Crew safe.

WALL STREET EXCITED.

Gould and Vanderbilt Have a Row.

New York, Nov. 20.—The street is full of rumors as to a rumpus on the Stock Exchange, one report saying that Gould and Vanderbilt have had a row. It is generally thought that what was planed as a mere raid has got beyond the control of the manipulators, and developed into a break.

GREAT BRITAIN.

IRISH TROUBLES.

London, Nov. 20.—The speeches for which Michael Davitt and James Bryce Killan were arrested in Dublin, and James Dailey, editor of the Connaught Telegraph, in Castlebar, were made at a meeting on the 2nd inst., at Guerton, county Sligo.

This placard has been posted in several places in county Mayo:

To the people of Mayo:

Fellow Countrymen:—The hour of trial is come. Your leaders are arrested. Davitt and Daily are in prison. You know your duty, will you do it? Yes; you will! Balla is the place of meeting, and Saturday is the day. Come in your thousands, and show the government and the world that your rights you will maintain. To the rescue! In the righteousness of your numbers! Land and liberty! God save the people! Balla! Balla! Saturday next! Saturday next!

All the London morning journals approve of the arrests, except the Daily News, which makes them the occasion for a violent partisan attack.

LABOUCHERE'S CASE.

London, Nov. 20.—In the court of Queen's bench to-day Lord Chief Justice Cockburn delivered a judgment refusing the application of Labouchere, of Truth, for a mandamus to compel Sir Robert Carden, magistrate, to hear further evidence in justification of the alleged libels against Henry L. Lawson, of the Daily Telegraph. The lord chief justice said the attempt to have the court prescribe to a magistrate what evidence he should receive or reject was certainly anomalous. The court, he said, had no authority on that point to do any such thing, and ought not to hesitate a moment to discharge the suit nisi.

Dastardly Attempt to Get Away With An Officer.

The James Brothers Reported Alive in Texas.

AN OFFICER WAYLAID.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 20.—On the trial of the excise case yesterday an attempt was made to get possession, by a forged order, of Detective Rillings's satchel containing the evidence. Failing in this, some unknown men waylaid Rillings, last night, near his boarding house. Snuff was thrown in his eyes, and he was beaten and the papers and memorandum of evidence taken. Rillings fired five shots. No arrests.

THE JAMES BOYS.

Galveston, Tex., Nov. 20.—To-day's News will publish a statement by one of the most prominent detectives in Texas that the noted James boys, of Missouri, are living in the vicinity of Sherman. He says that they have lived in the neighborhood, of that town for several years, and that they frequently visit Sherman and Denison openly in daylight; that the officers know them well, and have asked if a reward would be paid by Missouri for their capture, but receiving no favorable information to that effect, let them alone, especially as their conduct in the state has been irreproachable. Each one works industriously, planting corn and oats and raising stock, selling their products in Sherman. The detective did not deny that the James boys made trips to Kansas and Missouri, but says that if they were actually wanted their arrest could have been easily effected.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

A BAD MAN.

Who Slings a Shot Gun Around "Regardless"

An Unpleasant Party to Have Around.

Yesterday afternoon as Henry Kammeyer, living a couple of miles northwest of the city was at work in the field, he heard the report of a gun and heard his dog yelp. He went toward the house and met a young man with a gun. He asked him what the noise was and the young man said he had shot his dog, and after a few words threatened to shoot Mr. K., and made a motion to do so. Mr. K. caught the gun and held it away from him, shortly after which the young man left. This morning Mr. Kammeyer came to the city to see the sheriff, but as the name of the young man and his residence are unknown, it is not probable that he will be found.

CASUALTIES.

Loss of the Iron Steamer Pallas, With Thirty Lives.

Port Huron, Nov. 20.—News from Sand Beach reports serious accidents at the harbor. The steam barge J. R. Whitney, with the schooners Bahama and Emma C. Hutchinson in tow, struck the lower reef and went ashore.

The Whiting worked over the reef and sunk in twenty feet of water.

There was about twenty sail of vessels off the point. Many of them tried to make the harbor all about the same time, when they became tangled and dragged into one another, doing immense damage.

Full reports have not been received yet.

TERRIBLE GALE.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 20.—One of the heaviest gales this season began here about midnight, and for several hours the wind blew forty miles per hour.

It is now blowing hard, with a light snow, and getting colder.

The schooner Juniata, while being towed into the harbor last night, was struck by a squall. The tugmen let go the line, and the schooner soon drifted off east of the piers, and struck on the piles. She was scuttled to prevent her going to pieces.

The schooner Sooco, which went ashore at Fairport Tuesday night, went to pieces this morning. No insurance.

STEAMER FOUNDERED.

London, Nov. 20.—The iron steamer Pallas, from Copenhagen for Amsterdam, is believed to be foundered off Heimskirk. Thirty persons perished.

ASHORE.

London, Nov. 20.—Her majesty's ship Egeria has gone ashore near Pakhoe, where she was sent to protect British interests. A considerable portion of her false keel was wrenched off, and she will will have to be docked for repairs.

Chicago, Nov. 20.—The schooner Clara Parker went ashore off Thirty-fifth street early this morning. If the wind dies down, she may yet be saved.

Oswego, Nov. 20.—The schooner Samuel Cary, from Toledo to this point, is ashore at Port Colburne and nearly full of water. Crew safe.

WALL STREET EXCITED.

Gould and Vanderbilt Have a Row.

New York, Nov. 20.—The street is full of rumors as to a rumpus on the Stock Exchange, one report saying that Gould and Vanderbilt have had a row. It is generally thought that what was planed as a mere raid has got beyond the control of the manipulators, and developed into a break.

IRISH TROUBLES.

London, Nov. 20.—The speeches for which Michael Davitt and James Bryce Killan were arrested in Dublin, and James Dailey, editor of the Connaught Telegraph, in Castlebar, were made at a meeting on the 2nd inst, at Guerteen, county Sligo.

This placard has been posted in several places in county Mayo:

To the people of Mayo:
Fellow Countrymen:—The hour of trial is come. Your leaders are arrested. Davitt and Daily are in prison. You know your duty, will you do it? Yes; you will! Balla is the place of meeting, and Saturday is the day. Come in your thousands, and show the government and the world that your rights you will maintain. To the rescue! In the righteousness of your numbers! Land and liberty! God save the people! Balla! Balla! Saturday next! Saturday next!

All the London morning journals approve of the arrests, except the Daily News, which makes them the occasion for a violent partisan attack.

LABOUCHERE'S CASE.

London, Nov. 20.—In the court of queen's bench to-day Lord Chief Justice Cockburn delivered a judgment refusing the application of Labouchere, of Truth, for a mandamus to compel Sir Robert Carden, magistrate, to hear further evidence in justification of the alleged libels against Henry L. Lawson, of the Daily Telegraph. The lord chief justice said the attempt to have the court prescribe to a magistrate what evidence he should receive or reject was certainly anomalous. The court, he said, had no authority on that point to do any such thing, and ought not to hesitate a moment to discharge the suit nisi.

AN OFFICER WAYLAID.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 20.—On the trial of the excise case yesterday an attempt was made to get possession, by a forged order, of Detective Rillings's satchel containing the evidence. Failing in this, some unknown men waylaid Rillings, last night, near his boarding house. Snuff was thrown in his eyes, and he was beaten and the papers and memorandum of evidence taken. Rillings fired five shots. No arrests.

THE JAMES BOYS.

Galveston, Tex., Nov. 20.—To-day's News will publish a statement by one of the most prominent detectives in Texas that the noted James boys, of Missouri, are living in the vicinity of Sherman. He says that they have lived in the neighborhood, of that town for several years, and that they frequently visit Sherman and Denison openly in daylight; that the officers know them well, and have asked if a reward would be paid by Missouri for their capture, but receiving no favorable information to that effect, let them alone, especially as their conduct in the state has been irreproachable. Each one works industriously, planting corn and oats and raising stock, selling their products in Sherman. The detective did not deny that the James boys made trips to Kansas and Missouri, but says that if they were actually wanted their arrest could have been easily effected.

ADDITIONAL CITY NEWS.

A BAD MAN.

Who Slings a Shot Gun Around "Regardless"

An Unpleasant Party to Have Around.

Yesterday afternoon as Henry Kammeyer, living a couple of miles northwest of the city was at work in the field, he heard the report of a gun and heard his dog yelp. He went toward the house and met a young man with a gun. He asked him what the noise was and the young man said he had shot his dog, and after a few words threatened to shoot Mr. K., and made a motion to do so. Mr. K. caught the gun and held it away from him, shortly after which the young man left. This morning Mr. Kammeyer came to the city to see the sheriff, but as the name of the young man and his residence are unknown, it is not probable that he will be found.

CIRCULATION

Of The "Daily Sentinel."

The following is the circulation of the "Daily Sentinel" for the week ending November 15th, 1879:

Monday, Nov. 10	4,363
Tuesday, Nov. 11	4,368
Wednesday, Nov. 12	4,368
Thursday, Nov. 13	4,368
Friday, Nov. 14	4,416
Saturday, Nov. 15	4,464
Total	26,352
Average for the week	4,392

Personally appeared before me, Robert A. Mears, a notary public in and for the county of Allen and state of Indiana, William R. Nelson, one of the publishers of the Fort Wayne "Daily Sentinel," who being duly sworn testified that the above is a true statement of the circulation of the "Sentinel" for the above dates.

ROBERT A. MEERS, Notary Public.

FROM the amount of attention paid to Mr. TILDEN by the republican papers and a good many democratic papers, it is evident they regard him as still very lively.

THE Indianapolis Journal has a handsome new dress. The Journal is a good newspaper and a credit to Indiana journalism, although it keeps constantly on hand a very vile assortment of politics.

THE radicals are badly alarmed lest they may be compelled to take a dose of their own unpalatable medicine down in Maine. The men who winked at the stealing of twenty-one electoral votes in 1876, are very much horrified at the bare idea of being counted out of the Maine legislature. Poor innocent fellows!

IN Tuesday's SENTINEL a correspondent printed a statement that JESSE L. WILLIAMS had admitted to a city official, in the presence of several witnesses, that he had no objection to the canal feeder as a source of supply, but that his opposition was based upon personal malice only. Mr. WILLIAMS has made no denial of this charge. The SENTINEL is informed that there are several witnesses who can substantiate the charge if Mr. WILLIAMS denies it. This being the case Mr. WILLIAMS can hardly expect anything he can now say or do to have any effect upon the public.

THE Hon. RICHARD W. THOMPSON, secretary of the navy, at the end of the current fiscal year, reports $1,500,000 of unexpended appropriations on hand, which will be covered into the treasury. This shows Mr. THOMPSON'S management of the navy department to have been as economical as it has been efficient. It is in admirable contrast to that of his predecessor, ROBESON, whose shameless profligacy, extravagance and corruption were among the worst scandals of the era of Grantism. Among the few good things that R. B. HAYES has done since he became president was the appointment of DICK THOMPSON as secretary of the navy.

THE New York Nation calls attention to a remarkable omission by the eulogists of CHANDLER:

The most notable part of CHANDLER'S career was his chairmanship of the republican committee during the last presidential campaign, when he rendered the party service which none of the republican papers now seem willing to acknowledge, in refusing to be cast down by "the face of the returns" on the morning after election. Everybody but he had apparently forgotten "the judicial functions" of the returning boards, and when he telegraphed to his agents to hold on to everything and wait for help it was a stroke like that of NELSON at Copenhagen, when he put the glass to his blind eye and failed to see the signal of recall.

In history CHANDLER will be more closely identified with the great fraud of 1876-7 than any other man. Indeed but for him it would have been impossible.

STATE POLITICS.

Delphi Times:

Hendricks and Potter. How will that do?

This from the New Albany Ledger-Standard:

If Potter can't carry New York, certainly Hendricks cannot.

The Delphi Times remarks:

Indiana and New York will furnish the next presidential ticket. That much is settled.

The Elkhart Democrat says:

Samuel J. Tilden is not dead, as was supposed by some of the radicals, but still lives and is on deck for 1880.

Wasbash Courier:

The democrats of Indiana must nominate their best man for governor next year. No second rate politician need apply.

The Muncie Times (rep.) says:

Gen. James M. Shackleford, of Evansville, seems to loom up as the foremost candidate for governor in the southern part of the state.

The following conundrum is propounded by the Wabash Courier:

How would Hon. William H. English do for the democratic candidate for governor?

This "palpable hit" is made by the Wabash Courier:

The boom of Gen. Morton C. Hunter for governor has died out. The oft-repeated soldiers' reunion speech was too frail a thing to build a boom upon.

The Wabash Courier well says:

Some papers are asking, "can Bayard carry Indiana?" Why, of course he can. Any great democrat whose record is as unsmirched as that of Senator Bayard can carry Indiana with a whirl.

Speaking of Heilman's letter refusing to be the republican gubernatorial nominee, the Wabash Courier says:

Heilman seems to know enough to know that he could not win the race.

The Wabash Courier suggests to Eli Brown, of the Columbia City Post, in view of his rumored political aspirations, that a "steel portrait is in order."

The Elkhart Democrat says:

The name of the Hon. William H. English, the largest property holder in the state, is being mentioned by several of our democratic exchanges in connection with the democratic nomination for vice president.

The Wabash Courier hands it in to Mr. Colfax after this fashion:

Some of the republican papers are actually talking of Smiller Colfax for governor. Aside from his credit mobilier record, his lectures have bored too many people in Indiana. He never can be governor.

The Terre Haute Courier gives this piece of warning to its party friends:

We warn our republican friends now that if the democratic party puts Mr. English in a position to make a leader of him in this state next year, there are breakers ahead for us. He is one of the strongest men in that party, and has a barrel bigger than Tilden's.

The Decatur Democrat says:

The Washington Post thinks it should be Seymour and McDonald for 1880. A ticket composed of Horatio Seymour and Joseph E. McDonald would be an invincible one. The latter is one of the best and strongest men in the democratic party. He would be an honor to any office in the gift of the American people, and that higher honors await him there can be no doubt.

The Chester (Pa.) Democrat flies this ticket:

For President,
THOMAS F. BAYARD,
Of Delaware.
For Vice President,
JOSEPH E. McDONALD,
Of Indiana.

The Hendricks club of Indianapolis has appointed a committee to open a correspondence with the prominent democrats of the state with the view of securing the organization of Hendricks clubs in every county of the state.

PERSONAL.

Governor-elect Foster, of Ohio, is fifty.

Gen. Noyes is in Egypt doing the Nile.

Dr. J. G. Holland's health is precarious.

Swinburne, the poet, is inclined to be peevish and obstinate.

Mr. and Mrs. Manton Marble will soon return to New York from Paris.

Afales Young, a son of the late Brigham Young, is studying law in Paris.

Ex-United States Senator McCreery, of Kentucky, was attacked with paralysis a few days ago.

The Pope's new paper is likely to run a year or more, the late Pope having left $33,000,000 in bank.

Miss Anna Dickinson is working quietly on several plays, one of which is designed for a distinguished performer.

Mrs. Flora E. Price, lately a captive of the Ute Indians with the Meeker ladies, was married when twelve years old.

The Rev. James Beecher, a half brother of Henry Ward Beecher, still lives near Beecher Lake in the centre of a wild tract of country among the Catskill Mountains. He built his house—a story and a half structure with his own hands. There is no road nearer than nine miles.

Mr. Tennyson has found time to write a little comedy in one act; it is said to be full of the most delicate humor and pathos.

Mr. Olive Logan—sometimes known as William Wirt Sikes—has published a book on Welsh-folk-lore, which is said to be very interesting.

A single hair from the head of a pretty woman brought $180 at a raffle for the benefit of Gen. Hood's children, Lowndes county, Ala., the other day.

The Prince of Wales visits the continent at least ten times a year, and is almost as well known in Paris as in London and Copenhagen.

Miss Lily Bunce, the daughter of the editor of Appletons' Journal, painted her own wedding dress in a design representing lillies of the valley and shaded grasses.

Napoleon V. and wife, Princess Clotilde, have made up their quarrel, and she has consented to return to Paris and live with him this winter. Her brother, the king of Italy, advised her to this course.

Victor Hugo visited Notre Dame recently and gazed for a long time at the ravens that were wheeling around the church. "They are the thoughts of those stones," said he; "cathedrals without ravens seem dead."

Darius Perrin, of Rochester, N. Y., transferred $800,000 worth of property to his nephew to protect it in a business emergency, and now wants to get it back, but his nephew announces his intention of keeping it.

Ex-Senator James A. Bayard, father of the present senator, Thomas F. Bayard, lives in Wilmington, Del., with his children, at an advanced age and in feeble health. He entered the senate in 1851 and resigned in January, 1864.

The present viceroy of Ireland, the duke of Marlborough, and his family, are extremely liked and respected in Ireland, and not the least popular member of the viceregal family is Lady Randolph Churchill, nee Jerome, of New York. Lord Blandford, the duke's eldest son, is the black sheep of the family.

Rosenberg, of Town Talk, the London "society" journal, who has been committed to prison for eighteen months, has a wife. But for her intercession with the wives of Mr. West and Mr. Langtry, it is said, other charges would have been preferred against him, and he might probably have had a much longer sentence.

The pope is in most things excessively economical, but his charities act as a constant drain on his resources. When he ordered $4,000 to be sent to the Murcian sufferers he was told that money was wanting. Recourse was about to be had to a loan from a bank, but some Peter's pence were opportunely presented.

In compliance with the dying request of the late Richard Schell, he was buried very quietly from his late residence, in New York. Nobody but his immediate relatives and a few intimate friends were invited, and they accompanied the remains to Rhinebeck, where the body was buried. A short service was held at the house. There were no pall bearers.

A curious calculation has been made by a continental statistician as to the amount drawn by various sovereigns from the civil list. According to this it appears that the Czar has 150,000f per day; the Sultan, 90,000f; the Emperor of Austria, 50,000f; the Emperor of Germany, 41,000f; the King of Italy, 32,000f; and the King of the Belgians, 8,215f.

Rev. Dr. Kirkus, rector of one of the Protestant Episcopal churches of Baltimore, having recently asked for contributions of gold, silver and jewelry from the congregation, for the manufacture of a new communion service, met with a response in the shape of a half bushel of silver plate and jewelry. Among the trinkets was a diamond ring valued at $1,100.

Of Joseph Cook it is related that he breakfasts at 7 o'clock and then goes into his study, where he works busily until two. He then dines, and after dinner meets any who has called meanwhile to see him. He then goes out for an hour's walk, which is his chief exercise and recreation. He returns to his house, to letter writing at his desk. His supper is a simple one of bread and a glass of milk, after which he sits down to reading, rarely to the work of composition or production until 10 o'clock. When he is traveling on lecture tours he preserves as nearly as possible the same hours, beginning his work at 8 o'clock whether he be in the hotel, a carriage or the cars.

Billiards.

New York, Nov. 20.—At the billiard tournament last night the first game was won by Schaefler by a score of 300 to Heiser's 170. The second game stood, Garnier 300 to Carter's 247.

NEWS NOTES.

Col. John Hay, of Cleveland, left for Washington Wednesday evening, to assume the duties of assistant secretary of state.

The heaviest fall of snow in years fell at Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday. It snowed for over three hours steadily and seemed to be general in that section.

The executive committee of the Louisville Jockey Club, after a full hearing of the particulars of the shooting of Col. Lewis Clark, president of the club, by Capt. T. G. Moore, ruled Capt. Moore off the track. This rules Capt. Moore off of every regular track in America.

The district court at San Francisco has dismissed with costs the suits against the Hale and Norcross, Consolidated Virginia, Gould and Curry, Savage, Crown Point, Serre Nevada and Kentuck mining companies, brought by the state two years ago, to recover about $1,500,000 back bullion taxes.

The miners of the Tuscarwas, (O.) Valley have appointed a committee of six to meet a like committee from the operators with a view to the formation of a board of arbitrators. Pending the operator's action the men are out on a demand for ninety-five cents per ton for mining. This section represents upwards of 17,000 miners.

A curious case has just been decided by the supreme court of Tennessee, which, had the decision been adverse the case would have been taken to the supreme court of the United States. In East Tennessee several white men were indicted in the state criminal court for playing cards with negroes. This was under an old statute, which has never been repealed. The statute provides that any white man guilty of playing cards with a negro slave or free man of color, should be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to fine and imprisonment. The circuit judge charged the grand juries that this statute, so far as it referred to "free men of color," was a law to-day, and under his instructions many indictments were found against white men for playing cards with colored men. Gambling was not necessary to constitute the offense. The mere act of playing cards with a negro constituted the offense. The supreme court discharged all the defendants, taxing the state with the costs, upon the ground that the "results of the war," and constitutional amendments, had, in effect, repealed the law making card-playing with "free men of color" a crime.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

Russia is still increasing her fleet on the Pacific.

A public meeting to denounce arrests in Ireland will be held at Dublin Friday.

Gladstone will announce his programme of Scotch land reform at Midlothian next week.

All Russian officers on leave of absence have been ordered to join their regiments immediately.

The porte invites United States bondholders to send delegates to examine its financial affairs.

A dispatch from Zanzibar says that two Frenchmen have discovered the sources of the River Niger.

Sir Julius Benedict, the eminent musician and composer, who was born November 27th, 1804, will shortly be married.

A Paris dispatch says the council of the prefecture of the Seine has annulled the election of Humbert to the municipal council.

The pope and papal secretary of state, Cardinal Nina, deplore and censure the attacks of the Belgian bishops upon the constitution.

Previous to the prorogation of the Italian chambers Cairoli announced that King Humbert had charged him with the formation of a new cabinet.

Baron Decubril, Russian ambassador to Germany, has been summoned to St. Petersburg to explain the relations between Russia and Germany.

A Rome correspondent reports that the resignation of the minister of public instruction threatens to cause a cabinet crisis before the opening of the chambers.

A Berlin correspondent asserts that there is reason to regard the news of a considerable concentration of Russian troops on the eastern frontier of Germany as well founded.

A letter from Smyrna reports a splendid fruit crop, and 10,000,000 kilogrammes of figs arrived there from the interior, the greater part of which will be sent to Europe and America.

Mgr. Jacobini, papal nuncio at Munich, will visit Berlin in December, probably to confer with Bismarck, who is said to have made important concessions in the recent negotiations.

At the opening of the London wool sales, Tuesday night, the attendance was large and the bidding very spirited. The sales show an advance of 10 percent on merinos and 17 percent on cross-bree wools.

The cattle plague has violently broken out at Posen and in the Warsaw and Poland districts. Thirty infected beasts have been slaughtered. The disease is making great ravages in the Lochaczow district in Russian-Poland.

The English colonial office replying to the memorial against the exclusion of missionaries from Zululand, has promised to inform Sir Garnet Wolseley that it is desirable that any interference with missionary questions should be avoided.

The visit of Princess Louise to London has for its object the colonization of Manitoba and northwestern Canada. A company has been formed under the title of "The Lake Winnipeg Land and Colonization Association," to give aid and information to emigrants.

Her majesty the queen of England has commanded Lord Napier, governor and commander-in-chief of Gibraltar, together with two aristocratic attendants, to attend and represent her at the wedding of King Alfonso and Archduchess Christine. The queen and princess of Wales will each send costly presents to the royal bride. The cortes will suspend its sittings during the wedding festivities.

The Moniteur Egyptian publishes decrees recognizing the functions of the Anglo-French comprollers general and declaring the domain pledged to secure the Rothschild loan to be free from seizure. The English and French comprollers general rank as ministers, and are irremovable without the consent of their respective governments. Their functions respecting the service of the Egyptian debt give them absolute control. The proceeds of the Rothschild loan will be applied exclusively to the liquidation of the floating debt.

POLITICAL.

Hon. Horatio Seymour denies any knowledge of the plan to make him an arbiter between the contending factions of the democratic party in New York. He says the adjustment should be left to the democratic convention.

GORHAM.

The secretary of the California state central committee, under instructions from that committee, has telegraphed to the president and secretary of the national republican committee, asking that the place of George C. Gorham on the national committee, as representative of California, be declared vacant on account of his action during the recent state campaign.

MAINE.

Gov. Garcelon sat with the council at Augusta, Wednesday, both in the morning and evening session. Hon. Andrew Lacy, of Wiscasset, called at the council chamber in the forenoon to see the returns from Lincoln county, stating that he had permission from the governor to see them. The governor stated that the conversation related to the returning of the election of county officers and not to those of senators and representatives. Lacy then stated that he wanted to see the returns of county commissioner, when Senator Bell declined to let him see the returns in either case. No answer having been received from council to letters already sent them, Messrs. Baker & Baker, counsel for the same parties interested, sent a long letter urging that their clients be allowed to see the returns, and making the argument that the law contemplated that candidates must be permitted to see the returns. When the messenger arrived with the letter council had adjourned till Friday. It is now thought application will be made to the supreme judicial court to test the right of candidates to see the returns.

LOUISIANA.

In the Spofford inquiry yesterday Bernard Williams was recalled and testified that John Lewis paid his way to Washington; John Lewis and Morris Marks tried to keep me from coming before this committee; Lewis said I would be well paid; they would send me away; Marks sent for me three times last Saturday to come and see him at the Custom House; I didn't go because I was afraid they would kill me; am satisfied if I had gone I would not now be alive. The cross-examination by Senator Cameron developed the fact that witness had been in the confederate army, deserted and was captured and punished.

RAILROADS IN GENERAL.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad officials at Cincinnati state that notice has been given by that company that, in view of the co-operation of consignees of grain in aiding to relieve the elevators at Baltimore, they have determined to cancel all bills for demurrage of cars.

General Freight Agent Vining, of the Union Pacific Railway, is in conference with Mr. Stubbs, general freight agent of the Central Pacific Railway. A revision or modification of freight tariffs is in contemplation and an exchange of views is likely to lead to important changes in the rates of freight from New York to San Francisco.

Among the railroad men in Cincinnati are C. P. Atmore, E. D. Standeford, Louisville; J. G. Skinner, New Orleans, and J. Waldo, Houston, Tex., who have been in consultation with others concerning means to prevent discrimination on freights to the south. The purpose of the conference has not yet been accomplished, and further conference will be held to-morrow.

Judge Drummond entered a virtual decree of foreclosure at Chicago, Tuesday, in the suit of James F. Secor and others against the Toledo, Peoria and Wabash Railroad Company, by the terms of which, unless the heavy bonded indebtedness is paid in full within twenty days thereof, it will be sold at auction, and the proceeds distributed among the creditors.

A new and important railroad project was inaugurated at Dallas, Tex., Tuesday, by filing the charter of the Texas Trunk Railway, which is to run from Dallas to the Gulf of Mexico at or near Sabine Pass, with a branch from the main line in Angelina or Tyler county to the Louisiana line, in all a distance of about 350 miles of road, running through the best timber sections of the state and opening up a great extent of very fine country.

The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade have appointed committees to arrange for the reception and entertainment of gentlemen from the south on the occasion of the opening of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, which is expected to take place about the middle of January. A large meeting of jobbers was held Wednesday for the purpose of giving this important interest a better representation on the committee. A committee consisting of five of the leading jobbers was appointed. It is proposed to make the event one of marked importance. A committee of reception to the number of 500 will be selected, and the guests will probably number 1,000 or 1,200.

TO THOMAS.

Unveiling of the Statue to His Memory, at Washington—An Immense Crowd and Profuse Decorations and Imposing Ceremonies.

The city presented a gala day appearance yesterday. The streets were thronged with people seeking places from which to view the march of the army of the Cumberland and the unveiling of the statue of Gen. Thomas. Buildings public and private along the route were very generally and handsomely decorated. The quartermaster general's building was profusely draped with national colors and displayed a number of flags that were torn and riddled on battle fields of the Mexican war. Stretched across the street was a well executed portrait of Gen. Thomas.

The decorations at Fourteenth Street Circle, where the statue is erected, are very rich. Around the circle are thirty-eight long poles united by a rope of evergreens, each pole bearing the ensign and coat of arms of each state and a panel commemorating battles in which the Army of the Cumberland was engaged, or the name of one of the deceased general officers. At each of the four corners of the pedestal upon which the statue stands there is a pole corresponding with the poles representing the states, and flanked by stacks of muskets and field pieces, the spaces which intervene being ornamented with pyramids of cannon balls. Here also a platform has been erected capable of seating 500 persons. The platform for the speakers is within this and bears panels on which are inscribed the names of Anderson, Sherman, Buell and Rosencranz; in addition to these appear panels at various points bearing the names of Brig.-Gen. Terrell, R. S. McCrook, Sill Lytle, Harker and Daniel McCook, who were killed in battle or died of their wounds. Hundreds of other panels scattered throughout the decorations were inscribed with the names of all the corps and division commands of the army of the Cumberland. The handsome private residences around the circle were also very tastefully decorated.

The procession formed on Pennsylvania avenue near the capitol and started promptly at 1 o'clock. Upon arriving at the circle where the statue is placed were begun by prayer. "Hail to the Chief" and "Star Spangled Banner" were sung by a grand chorus, with bands, drum corps and artillery accompaniment. The statue was then unveiled, people at a distance being informed by a salute of fifteen guns from Fort Whipple. A grand hymn was then given by a chorus of 100 male voices, supported by the military band, drum corps and artillery. At the conclusion of the hymns, Stanley Matthews delivered the oration. The presentation of the statue was made as an offering from the army of the Cumberland to the nation, and President Hayes accepted the offering in behalf of the people of the United States.

A Wonderful Cure of Diphtheria—Three of my children had Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin dry, lips parched, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia to the tonsils, rubbed it over their throats and chests. Great chunks of stiff came from the throats, the skin became moist, fever left them, and under the Almighty care I attribute their cure to Dr. Giles' Liniment.

Is Wise Alive?

The following note was found in a bottle at a point between Metropolis and Paducah, Kentucky, on the 18th instant. The note reads as follows:

Path Finder, Ohio river, Nov. 3—2:30 p. m.—Near Paducah, Kentucky, going at the rate of 65 miles, southeast by four. P. F. in bad condition. I am almost dead with exhaustion and hunger; eleven days since Burr's death. Good-by. WISE.

Those that are familiar with the missing man's handwriting say that were it not for the date of the letter, and the locality in which it was found, they would swear that Wise wrote it. He always capitalized the F in Pathfinder, and it is so in the manuscript. It is not probable, however, that the story will be generally credited.

Make a Note of This.

Prof. Green, a distinguished allopathic physician, wrote to the Medical Journal to the effect that after all other means had failed, he sent for the Kidney Cure, (now Safe Kidney and Liver Cure), and to his astonishment cured a serious case of Bright's Disease by administering it, and afterwards found it equally beneficial in other cases. He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases. 8

CIRCULATION

Of The "Daily Sentinel."

The following is the circulation of the "Daily Sentinel" for the week ending November 15th, 1879:

Monday, Nov. 10	4,368
Tuesday, Nov. 11	4,368
Wednesday, Nov. 12	4,368

Saturday, Nov. 15	4,464
Total	26,352
Average for the week	4,392

Personally appeared before me, Robert A. Mears, a notary public in and for the county of Allen and state of Indiana, William R. Nelson, one of the publishers of the Fort Wayne "Daily Sentinel," who being duly sworn testified that the above is a true statement of the circulation of the "Sentinel" for the above dates.

ROBERT A. MEERS, Notary Public.

FROM the amount of attention paid to Mr. TILDEN by the republican papers and a good many democratic papers, it is evident they regard him as still very lively.

THE Indianapolis Journal has a handsome new dress. The Journal is a good newspaper and a credit to Indiana journalism, although it keeps constantly on hand a very vile assortment of politics.

THE radicals are badly alarmed lest they may be compelled to take a dose of their own unpalatable medicine down in Maine. The men who winked at the stealing of twenty-one electoral votes in 1876, are very much horrified at the bare idea of being counted out of the Maine legislature. Poor innocent fellows!

IN Tuesday's SENTINEL a correspondent printed a statement that JESSE L. WILLIAMS had admitted to a city official, in the presence of several witnesses, that he had no objection to the canal feeder as a source of supply, but that his opposition was based upon personal malice only. Mr. WILLIAMS has made no denial of this charge. The SENTINEL is informed that there are several witnesses who can substantiate the charge if Mr. WILLIAMS denies it. This being the case Mr. WILLIAMS can hardly expect anything he can now say or do to have any effect upon the public.

THE Hon. RICHARD W. THOMPSON, secretary of the navy, at the end of the current fiscal year, reports $1,500,000 of unexpended appropriations on hand, which will be covered into the treasury. This shows Mr. THOMPSON'S management of the navy department to have been as economical as it has been efficient. It is in admirable contrast to that of his predecessor, ROBESON, whose shameless profligacy, extravagance and corruption were among the worst scandals of the era of Grantism. Among the few good things that R. B. HAYES has done since he became president was the appointment of DICK THOMPSON as secretary of the navy.

THE New York Nation calls attention to a remarkable omission by the eulogists of CHANDLER:

The most notable part of CHANDLER'S career was his chairmanship of the republican committee during the last presidential campaign, when he rendered the party service which none of the republican papers now seem willing to acknowledge, in refusing to be cast down by "the face of the returns" on the morning after election. Everybody but he had apparently forgotten "the judicial functions" of the returning boards, and when he telegraphed to his agents to hold on to everything and wait for help it was a stroke like that of NELSON at Copenhagen, when he put the glass to his blind eye and failed to see the signal of recall.

In history CHANDLER will be more closely identified with the great fraud of 1876-7 than any other man. Indeed but for him it would have been impossible.

STATE POLITICS.

Delphi Times:

Hendricks and Potter. How will that do?

This from the New Albany Ledger-Standard:

If Potter can't carry New York, certainly Hendricks cannot.

The Delphi Times remarks:

Indiana and New York will furnish the next presidential ticket. That much is settled.

The Elkhart Democrat says:

Samuel J. Tilden is not dead, as was supposed by some of the radicals, but still lives and is on deck for 1880.

Wasbash Courier:

The democrats of Indiana must nominate their best man for governor next year. No second rate politician need apply.

The Muncie Times (rep.) says:

Gen. James M. Shackleford, of Evansville, seems to loom up as the foremost candidate for governor in the southern part of the state.

The following conundrum is propounded by the Wabash Courier:

How would Hon. William H. English do for the democratic candidate for governor?

This "palpable hit" is made by the Wabash Courier:

The boom of Gen. Morton C. Hunter for governor has died out. The oft-repeated soldiers' reunion speech was too frail a thing to build a boom upon.

The Wabash Courier well says:

Some papers are asking, "can Bayard carry Indiana?" Why, of course he can. Any great democrat whose record is as unsmirched as that of Senator Bayard can carry Indiana with a whirl.

Speaking of Heilman's letter refusing to be the republican gubernatorial nominee, the Wabash Courier says:

Heilman seems to know enough to know that he could not win the race.

The Wabash Courier suggests to Eli Brown, of the Columbia City Post, in view of his rumored political aspirations, that a "steel portrait is in order."

The Elkhart Democrat says:

The name of the Hon. William H. English, the largest property holder in the state, is being mentioned by several of our democratic exchanges in connection with the democratic nomination for vice president.

The Wabash Courier hands it in to Mr. Colfax after this fashion:

Some of the republican papers are actually talking of Snuffer Colfax for governor. Aside from his credit mobilier record, his lectures have bored too many people in Indiana. He never can be governor.

The Terre Haute Courier gives this piece of warning to its party friends:

We warn our republican friends now that if the democratic party puts Mr. English in a position to make a leader of him in this state next year, there are breakers ahead for us. He is one of the strongest men in that party, and has a barrel bigger than Tilden's.

The Decatur Democrat says:

The Washington Post thinks it should be Seymour and McDonald for 1880. A ticket composed of Horatio Seymour and Joseph E. McDonald would be an invincible one. The latter is one of the best and strongest men in the democratic party. He would be an honor to any office in the gift of the American people, and that higher honors await him there can be no doubt.

The Chester (Pa.) Democrat flies this ticket:

For Presiden,
THOMAS F. BAYARD,
Of Delaware.
For Vice President,
JOSEPH E. McDONALD,
Of Indiana.

The Hendricks club of Indianapolis has appointed a committee to open a correspondence with the prominent democrats of the state with the view of securing the organization of Hendricks clubs in every county of the state.

PERSONAL.

Governor-elect Foster, of Ohio, is fifty.

Gen. Noyes is in Egypt doing the Nile.

Dr. J. G. Holland's health is precarious.

Swinburne, the poet, is inclined to be peevish and obstinate.

Mr. and Mrs. Manton Marble will soon return to New York from Paris.

Atfales Young, a son of the late Brigham Young, is studying law in Paris.

Ex-United States Senator McCreery, of Kentucky, was attacked with paralysis a few days ago.

The Pope's new paper is likely to run a year or more, the late Pope having left $33,000,000 in bank.

Miss Anna Dickinson is working quietly on several plays, one of which is designed for a distinguished performer.

Mrs. Flora E. Price, lately a captive of the Ute Indians with the Meeker ladies, was married when twelve years old.

The Rev. James Beecher, a half brother of Henry Ward Beecher, still lives near Beecher Lake in the centre of a wild tract of country among the Catskill Mountains. He built his house—a story and a half structure with his own hands. There is no road nearer than nine miles.

Mr. Tennyson has found time to write a little comedy in one act; it is said to be full of the most delicate humor and pathos.

Mr. Olive Logan—sometimes known as William Wirt Sikes—has published a book on Welsh-folk-lore, which is said to be very interesting.

A single hair from the head of a pretty woman brought $180 at a raffle for the benefit of Gen. Hood's children, Lowndes county, Ala., the other day.

The Prince of Wales visits the continent at least ten times a year, and is almost as well known in Paris as in London and Copenhagen.

Miss Lily Bunce, the daughter of the editor of Appletons' Journal, painted her own wedding dress in a design representing lillies of the valley and shaded grasses.

Napoleon V. and wife, Princess Clotilde, have made up their quarrel, and she has consented to return to Paris and live with him this winter. Her brother, the king of Italy, advised her to this course.

Victor Hugo visited Notre Dame recently and gazed for a long time at the ravens that were wheeling around the church. "They are the thoughts of those stones," said he; "cathedrals without ravens seem dead."

Darius Perrin, of Rochester, N. Y., transferred $800,000 worth of property to his nephew to protect it in a business emergency, and now wants to get it back, but his nephew announces his intention of keeping it.

Ex-Senator James A. Bayard, father of the present senator, Thomas F. Bayard, lives in Wilmington, Del., with his children, at an advanced age and in feeble health. He entered the senate in 1851 and resigned in January, 1864.

The present viceroy of Ireland, the duke of Marlborough, and his family, are extremely liked and respected in Ireland, and not the least popular member of the viceregal family is Lady Randolph Churchill, nee Jerome, of New York. Lord Blandford, the duke's eldest son, is the black sheep of the family.

Rosenberg, of Town Talk, the London "society" journal, who has been committed to prison for eighteen months, has a wife. But for her intercession with the wives of Mr. West and Mr. Langtry, it is said, other charges would have been preferred against him, and he might probably have had a much longer sentence.

The pope is in most things excessively economical, but his charities act as a constant drain on his resources. When he ordered $4,000 to be sent to the Murcian sufferers he was told that money was wanting. Recourse was about to be had to a loan from a bank, but some Peter's pence were opportunely presented.

In compliance with the dying request of the late Richard Schell, he was buried very quietly from his late residence, in New York. Nobody but his immediate relatives and a few inmate friends were invited, and they accompanied the remains to Rhinebeck, where the body was buried. A short service was held at the house. There were no pall bearers.

A curious calculation has been made by a continental statistician as to the amount drawn by various sovereigns from the civil list. According to this it appears that the Czar has 150,000f per day; the Sultan, 90,000f; the Emperor of Austria, 50,000f; the Emperor of Germany, 41,000f; the King of Italy, 32,000f; and the King of the Belgians, 8,215f.

Rev. Dr. Kirkus, rector of one of the Protestant Episcopal churches of Baltimore, having recently asked for contributions of gold, silver and jewelry from the congregation, for the manufacture of a new communion service, met with a response in the shape of a half bushel of silver plate and jewelry. Among the trinkets was a diamond ring valued at $1,100.

Of Joseph Cook it is related that he breakfasts at 7 o'clock and then goes into his study, where he works busily until two. He then dines, and after dinner meets any who has called meanwhile to see him. He then goes out for an hour's walk, which is his chief exercise and recreation. He returns to his house, to letter writing at his desk. His supper is a simple one of bread and a glass of milk, after which he sits down to reading, rarely to the work of composition or production until 10 o'clock. When he is traveling on lecture tours he preserves as nearly as possible the same hours, beginning his work at 8 o'clock whether he be in the hotel, a carriage or the cars.

Billiards.

New York, Nov. 20.—At the billiard tournament last night the first game was won by Schaeffer by a score of 300 to Heiser's 170. The second game stood, Garnier 300 to Carter's 247.

NEWS NOTES.

Col. John Hay, of Cleveland, left for Washington Wednesday evening, to assume the duties of assistant secretary of state.

The heaviest fall of snow in years fell at Atlanta, Ga., Wednesday. It snowed for over three hours steadily and seemed to be general in that section.

The executive committee of the Louisville Jockey Club, after a full hearing of the particulars of the shooting of Col. Lewis Clark, president of the club, by Capt. T. G. Moore, ruled Capt. Moore off the track. This rules Capt. Moore off of every regular track in America.

The district court at San Francisco has dismissed with costs the suits against the Hale and Norcross, Consolidated Virginia, Gould and Curry, Savage, Crown Point, Serre Nevada and Kentuck mining companies, brought by the state two years ago, to recover about $1,500,000 back bullion taxes.

The miners of the Tuscarwas, (O.) Valley have appointed a committee of six to meet a like committee from the operators with a view to the formation of a board of arbitrators. Pending the operator's action the men are out on a demand for ninety-five cents per ton for mining. This section represents upwards of 17,000 miners.

A curious case has just been decided by the supreme court of Tennessee, which, had the decision been adverse the case would have been taken to the supreme court of the United States. In East Tennessee several white men were indicted in the state criminal court for playing cards with negroes. This was under an old statute, which has never been repealed. The statute provides that any white man guilty of playing cards with a negro slave or free man of color, should be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and subject to fine and imprisonment. The circuit judge charged the grand juries that this statute, so far as it referred to "free men of color," was a law to-day, and under his instructions many indictments were found against white men for playing cards with colored men. Gambling was not necessary to constitute the offense. The mere act of playing cards with a negro constituted the offense. The supreme court discharged all the defendants, taxing the state with the costs, upon the ground that the "results of the war," and constitutional amendments, had, in effect, repealed the law making card-playing with "free men of color" a crime.

MAINE.

Gov. Garcelon sat with the council at Augusta, Wednesday, both in the morning and evening session. Hon. Andrew Lacy, of Wiscasset, called at the council chamber in the forenoon to see the returns from Lincoln county, stating that he had permission from the governor to see them. The governor stated that the conversation related to the returning of the election of county officers and not to those of senators and representatives. Lacy then stated that he wanted to see the returns of county commissioner, when Senator Bell declined to let him see the returns in either case. No answer having been received from council to letters already sent them, Messrs. Baker & Baker, counsel for the same parties interested, sent a long letter urging that their clients be allowed to see the returns, and making the argument that the law contemplated that candidates must be permitted to see the returns. When the messenger arrived with the letter council had adjourned till Friday. It is now thought application will be made to the supreme judicial court to test the right of candidates to see the returns.

The cross-examination by Senator Cameron developed the fact that witness had been in the confederate army, deserted and was captured and punished.

TO THOMAS.

Unveiling of the Statue to His Memory, at Washington—An Immense Crowd and Profuse Decorations and Imposing Ceremonies.

The city presented a gala day appearance yesterday. The streets were thronged with people seeking places from which to view the march of the army of the Cumberland and the unvieling of the statue of Gen. Thomas. Buildings public and private along the route were very generally and handsomely decorated. The quartermaster general's building was profusely draped with national colors and displayed a number of flags that were torn and riddled on battle fields of the Mexican war. Stretched across the street was a well executed portrait of Gen. Thomas.

The decorations at Fourteenth Street Circle, where the statue is erected, are very rich. Around the circle are thirty-eight lofty poles united by a rope of evergreens, each pole bearing the ensign and coat of arms of each state and a panel commemorating battles in which the Army of the Cumberland was engaged, or the name of one of the deceased general officers. At each of the four corners of the pedestal upon which the statue stands there is a pole corresponding with the poles representing the states, and flanked by stacks of muskets and field pieces, the spaces which intervene being ornamented with pyramids of cannon balls. Here also a platform has been erected capable of seating 500 persons. The platform for the speakers is within this and bears panels on which are inscribed the names of Anderson, Sherman, Buell and Rosencranz; in addition to these appear panels at various points bearing the names of Brig.-Gen. Terrell, R. S. McCrook, Sill Lytle, Harker and Daniel McCook, who were killed in battle or died of their wounds. Hundreds of other panels scattered throughout the decorations were inscribed with the names of all the corps and division commands of the army of the Cumberland. The handsome private residences around the circle were also very tastefully decorated.

The procession formed on Pennsylvania avenue near the capitol and started promptly at 1 o'clock. Upon arriving at the circle where the statue is placed were begun by prayer. "Hail to the Chief" and "Star Spangled Banner" were sung by a grand chorus, with bands, drum corps and artillery accompaniment. The statue was then unveiled, people at a distance being informed by a salute of fifteen guns from Fort Whipple. A grand hymn was then given by a chorus of 100 male voices, supported by the military band, drum corps and artillery. At the conclusion of the hymns, Stanley Matthews delivered the oration. The presentation of the statue was made as an offering from the army of the Cumberland to the nation, and President Hayes accepted the offering in behalf of the people of the United States.

A Wonderful Cure of Diphtheria—Three of my children had Diphtheria in its worst form. Skin dry, lips parched, could not swallow. With a feather I applied Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia to the tonsils, rubbed it over their throats and chests. Is Wise Alive?

The following note was found in a bottle at a point between Metropolis and Paducah, Kentucky, on the 13th instant. The note reads as follows:

Path Finder, Ohio river, Nov. 3—2:30 p. m.—Near Paducah, Kentucky, going at the rate of 65 miles, southeast, per hour. P. F. in bad condition. I am almost dead with exhaustion and hunger; eleven days since Burr's death. Good-by. WISE.

Those that are familiar with the missing man's handwriting say that were it not for the date of the letter, and the locality in which it was found, they would swear that Wise wrote it. He always capitalized the F in Pathfinder, and it is so in the manuscript. It is not probable, however, that the story will be generally credited.

He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases. 3½

NOTICE.

A New Feature of the "Sentinel"—Will Our Readers Co-operate?

The SENTINEL has decided to introduce a new feature into its Saturday issue, namely, a society column, in which will be given, as nearly as possible, a complete review of the society events of the week, such as balls, parties, picnics, weddings, receptions, church socials, club soirees, etc., together with items about the movements of society people, and gossip and chit chat about all social matters, such as approaching weddings, parties, etc. If our readers will co-operate, this column will be made one of the most interesting and attractive features of the SENTINEL—especially to the ladies and to young people. To make this department what we desire it to be, we shall need the co-operation of our readers, especially those of the fair sex. In regard to social affairs, the list of those present, descriptions of ladies' dresses, list of presents at weddings, etc., will be acceptable. All matter for this department addressed by letter or postal card to the "Society Editor of the SENTINEL," will be gladly received, and should reach this office not later than Friday of each week. It is not designed to confine this department to Fort Wayne society, but to also include all social matters of interest in the various towns and villages in which the SENTINEL circulates, and we shall be glad to receive contributions from our readers in these places. The "Society Columns" of the Sunday and Saturday papers of Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other cities, are extremely readable and popular, and the same column in the SENTINEL can be made equally so with the co-operation of our readers. Let everybody contribute something. Our next Saturday's issue will contain the opening installment.

The Centenary Festival.

Driscoll's Hall was crowded last evening, the occasion being the annual festival of the Centenary M. E. Church, under the auspices of the ladies of the congregation. The kitchen and oyster table is presided over by Mrs. Carnwig, who is ably assisted by Mesdames Coler, Wright and Drake. Ice cream is dispensed by Mrs. Goodnough and Mrs. Kernan. Sam, Pete & Max presented these ladies with a fine cake, which will be disposed of this evening. Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Humpshire pass candies to those with a penchant for sweet things. The fancy goods and notions stand is looked after by Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Marcy. These ladies have on exhibition a magnificent zephyr and silk shawl donated by Chaskn, the popular notion dealer of Calhoun street, which will be voted to the most popular young lady.

This evening an elegant chamber set, presented by Mrs. Works, will be voted to the most popular married lady. A valuable lamp and other articles of value will be disposed of at the same time.

The "piscatorial pool" is attended to by the Misses Humpshire, Fry and Polhamus.

REWARD OFFERED.

A liberal reward is ready for any one who can essentially improve Warner's Safe Bitters as a pleasant and permanently effective tonic, blood purifier and preventive of disease. It is good for all diseases. 3

AMUSEMENTS.

"HUMPTY DUMPTY."

Nick Roberts will introduce to-night, at the Academy, what is said to be the finest specialty company that ever traveled in this country. "Humpty Dumpty" will be presented with many new features, which make it more entertaining and amusing than ever. The company has three great clowns, who will manage to keep the audience in an uproar from the going up of the curtain until the falling down thereof. Of course the Academy will be crowded. Notwithstanding the great attraction, the prices will remain as usual.

"PINAFORE" AND "FATINITZA."

Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore will sail into this port next Monday and anchor at the Academy, manned by a crew of juvenile wonders, half a hundred strong. On Monday evening "Pinafore" will be presented, and it will be repeated at a matinee to be given Tuesday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening the little wonders will present, for the first time in Fort Wayne, the popular comic opera "Fatinitza" which has been only less successful than "Pinafore" and concerning which the Baltimore American says:

The charming children who are traveling under Mr. Ford's management and making merriment in many hearts last night gave "Fatinitza" at the Opera House to a very elegant audience. The singing, as on the night previous, was exquisite. The opera is more difficult than "Pinafore," and the success of its presentation last night is all the more a compliment to the young singers. The audience seemed to admire alike the beauty of the music and the perfection of its rendition. The children, between seven and twelve years of age, appeared in roles which have been assumed on our stage by some of the best vocalists in the country, and we may safely say that the opera was never before so well presented here. Not only in the singing, but in action the children were remarkably accurate in all their parts. The choruses were particularly well trained. In every part they performed with remarkable skill and ease. The audience was highly pleased. Several encores were tendered during the performances and either gracefully acknowledged or declined.

The entertainment has not only the charm of novelty, but also of real merit in a musical and artistic sense. It was enjoyed thoroughly from first to last.

The prices have been fixed as follows: Evenings, general admission, 50 cents; reserved seats, 75 cents; gallery, 25 cents. Afternoon: general admission, 50 cents; no extra charge for reserved seats. General admission for children 25 cents.

FRANK BEARD.

Frank Beard, the great chalk-talker, will appear at the Academy to-morrow evening, in one of his inimitable entertainments and should be greeted by a large audience.

Monday, at Rushville, George W. Young's little girl was standing in front of an open grate when her clothing caught fire, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames that were not extinguished until most of her clothing were burned from her body. Constable Frank McChaster, of Columbus, and two other men got drunk last week and undertook to clean out the town, but failed, being locked up. When inside the corridors of the jail, they tore off two iron water basins, broke up the furniture, tore the cots out of six cells and tore them to pieces, together with the blankets and clothing, and then proceeded to set fire to them. Then the prisoners in the upper cells, who would have perished in the flames, began to pump water on the obstreperous prisoners below, when one man named Guinn was set upon and nearly beaten to death before the sheriff could restore order.

A horrible discovery was made last Friday evening in Howard & Read's woods, near Richmond, which has just come to light. For some days previous to the discovery a woman who gave her name as Fannie Parker was seen in the neighborhood and called at several houses asking for aid, as she was about to become a mother. As she evidently spoke the truth she was given no place to stay, but given something to eat. Friday evening a party who lives near was attracted by the bellowing of cows and the gathering of hogs to a certain spot in the woods. AN INCOME WITHOUT CARE.

By the combination method of operating in stocks a handsome income can be secured without care. Capital in any amount, from $10 to $50,000, may be used with equal proportionate success. By this system Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, New York, pool the orders of thousands of customers, of various sums, into one vast amount, and co-operate them under the most skillful management, dividing profits monthly. Each share-holder thus obtains all the advantages of the largest capital and experienced skill, and the percentage of profits is very great; $20 will pay $10 in 30 days; $250 will return $1,525 or 7½ percent on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. A prominent publisher of the Rock Island (Ill.) Daily Argus, made $104.15 on an investment of $20.00 in October. Hundreds of others are doing even better. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular has "two unerring rules for success in stock operations" and full information, so that any one can deal in stocks. All kinds of bonds and stocks wanted. LANDS! LANDS!

KANSAS TO THE FRONT!

The Leading Wheat State in the Union in 1878, and the Fourth Corn State—The Great Kansas Harvest in 1878 was Sold for the "Golden Belt."

The celebrated Grain Belt in country, in the limestone section of Central Kansas, traversed by the Kansas Pacific.

The following statement are taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878:

WHEAT! Kansas rises from the Eleventh Wheat State in 1877 to the First Wheat State in the Union in 1878, producing 26,518,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,796,403 bushels spring wheat; total,

32,315,361

Bushels Wheat, with only one-eighth of the state under cultivation. The organized counties lying in the Golden Wheat Belt of the Kansas Pacific produced 13,335,324 bushels, or over 41 percent, and, including unreporting counties, fully 14,000,000 bushels, or 45 percent of the entire yield of wheat in the state, averaging 24 bushels to the acre, while the average for the state was 17 bushels per acre.

CORN! Kansas, the Fourth Corn State in the Union, in 1878, produced 89,324,971 bushels of Corn. Of which the Golden Grain Belt counties produced 27,399,055 bushels, or 31 percent, nearly one-third of the entire yield of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.

The foregoing facts show conclusively why

29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years; and 40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year; and
43 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."

A Farm for Everybody.—65,000 farms—5,000,000 acres for sale by the Kansas Pacific—the best land in America, at from $2 to $6 per acre, one-quarter off for cash, or on 6 or 11 years credit at 7 percent interest. It don't take much money to buy a farm on the Kansas Pacific; $26 to $80 will secure 80 acres on credit, or $120 to $320 in cash will buy it outright.

Send to S. J. Gilmore, Land Commissioner, Salina, Kas., for the "Kansas Pacific Homestead," a publication which tells all about the country, or call on ISAAC d'ISAY, northwest corner Calhoun and Berry streets, Fort Wayne. It is mailed free to all applicants.

NOTICE.

A New Feature of the "Sentinel"—Will Our Readers Co-operate?

The SENTINEL has decided to introduce a new feature into its Saturday issue, namely, a society column, in which will be given, as nearly as possible, a complete review of the society events of the week, such as balls, parties, picnics, weddings, receptions, church socials, club soirees, etc., together with items about the movements of society people, and gossip and chit chat about all social matters, such as approaching weddings, parties, etc. If our readers will co-operate, this column will be made one of the most interesting and attractive features of the SENTINEL—especially to the ladies and to young people. To make this department what we desire it to be, we shall need the co-operatien of our readers, especially those of the fair sex. In regard to social affairs, the list of those present, descriptions of ladies' dresses, list of presents at weddings, etc., will be acceptable. All matter for this department addressed by letter or postal card to the "Society Editor of the SENTINEL," will be gladly received, and should reach this office not later than Friday of each week. It is not designed to confine this department to Fort Wayne society, but to also include all social matters of interest in the various towns and villages in which the SENTINEL circulates, and we shall be glad to receive contributions from our readers in these places. The "Society Columns" of the Sunday and Saturday papers of Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other cities, are extremely readable and popular, and the same column in the SENTINEL can be made equally so with the co-operation of our readers. Let everybody contribute something. Our next Saturday's issue will contain the opening installment.

The Centenary Festival.

Driscoll's Hall was crowded last evening, the occasion being the annual festival of the Centenary M. E. Church, under the auspices of the ladies of the congregation. The kitchen and oyster table is presided over by Mrs. Carnwig, who is ably assisted by Mesdames Coler, Wright and Drake. Ice cream is dispensed by Mrs. Goodnough and Mrs. Kernan. Sam, Pete & Max presented these ladies with a fine cake, which will be disposed of this evening. Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Humpshire pass candies to those with a penchant for sweet things. The fancy goods and notions stand is looked after by Mrs. Lamb and Mrs. Marcy. These ladies have on exhibition a magnificent zephyr and silk shawl donated by Chaska, the popular notion dealer of Calhoun street, which will be voted to the most popular young lady.

This evening an elegant chamber set, presented by Mrs. Works, will be voted to the most popular married lady. A valuable lamp and other articles of value will be disposed of at the same time.

The "piscatorial pool" is attended to by the Misses Humpshire, Fry and Polhamus.

REWARD OFFERED.

A liberal reward is ready for any one who can essentially improve Warner's Safe Bitters as a pleasant and permanently effective tonic, blood purifier and preventive of disease. It is good for all diseases. 3

AMUSEMENTS.

"HUMPTY DUMPTY."

Nick Roberts will introduce to-night, at the Academy, what is said to be the finest specialty company that ever traveled in this country. "Humpty Dumpty" will be presented with many new features, which make it more entertaining and amusing than ever. The company has three great clowns, who will manage to keep the audience in an uproar from the going up of the curtain until the falling down thereof. Of course the Academy will be crowded. Notwithstanding the great attraction, the prices will remain as usual.

"PINAFORE" AND "FATINITZA."

Her Majesty's Ship Pinafore will sail into this port next Monday and anchor at the Academy, manned by a crew of juvenile wonders, half a hundred strong. On Monday evening "Pinafore" will be presented, and it will be repeated at a matinee to be given Tuesday afternoon beginning at 3 o'clock.

On Tuesday evening the little wonders will present, for the first time in Fort Wayne, the popular comic opera "Fatinitza" which has been only less successful than "Pinafore" and concerning which the Baltimore American says:

The charming children who are traveling under Mr. Ford's management and making merriment in many hearts last night gave "Fatinitza" at the Opera House to a very elegant audience. The singing, as on the night previous, was exquisite. The opera is more difficult than "Pinafore," and the success of its presentation last night is all the more a compliment to the young singers. The audience seemed to admire alike the beauty of the music and the perfection of its rendition. The children, between seven and twelve years of age, appeared in roles which have been assumed on our stage by some of the best vocalists in the country, and we may safely say that the opera was never before so well presented here. Not only in the singing, but in action the children were remarkably accurate in all their parts. The choruses were particularly well trained. In every part they performed with remarkable skill and ease. The audience was highly pleased. Several encores were tendered during the performances and either gracefully acknowledged or declined.

The entertainment has not only the charm of novelty, but also of real merit in a musical and artistic sense. It was enjoyed thoroughly from first to last.

The prices have been fixed as follows: Evenings, general admission, 50 cents; reserved seats, 75 cents; gallery, 25 cents. Afternoon: general admission, 50 cents; no extra charge for reserved seats. General admission for children 25 cents.

FRANK BEARD.

Frank Beard, the great chalk-talker, will appear at the Academy to-morrow evening, in one of his inimitable entertainments and should be greeted by a large audience.

STATE NEWS.

Another railroad is talked of from Vincennes to Petersburg.

Typhoid pneumonia is prevailing in the vicinity of Bloomington.

Pork packing for the winter has commenced in various localities throughout the state.

Two highwaymen attacked Mr. Featheringill, of New Albany, on the Paoli pike, and robbed him of $350 and a gold watch.

The eight-year-old son of Mr. Null, at Lafayette, Monday slipped upon a loose plank lying over an open cistern. He fell in and was drowned.

The trial of C. T. Mayo, the bank defaulter, is now in progress in the United States court at Indianapolis, and is creating a great deal of interest.

Monday Judge Berkshire, at Brooklyn, sentenced three children, the sons of Rev. Newby, a colored minister, to the house of refuge, situated at Plainfield.

The old seminary building at Salem was burned Saturday night by an incendiary. It was built in 1842, a year after its predecessor was destroyed by fire.

Morris Cox, constable at Brooklyn, was arrested for, it is alleged, failing to turn over money collected by him as constable. His brother paid the shortage and he was released.

Charles Riley, a farmer of Harrison township, Cass county, and Timothy Sullivan, an employe of Messenger & Proser's pump factory at Logansport, each lost a hand by buzz saws on Monday.

On Sunday night the store of Jacob A. Horner, at Hancock, Harrison county, was burglarized, and about $800 worth of dry goods, clothing and boots and shoes were carried off. No arrests as yet.

John J. Stanley, a prominent farmer living near Arlington, Rush county, has been violently insane since last Saturday. He has to be closely guarded, as he is bent on killing his father and brother.

Burglars entered the house of Mr. E. S. Powelt in Shelbyville, Sunday, while the family was absent at church and stole two valuable watches and a large amount of jewelry. The loss is probably several hundred dollars.

An insane girl who has been confined in the St. Joseph county asylum for some time, has suddenly been discovered to be enceinte, and now what wants to be known is the name of the wretch who perpetrated the outrage.

A man named Whitehorn, living in Brown county, went to Franklin the other day to procure the aid of a surgeon in putting to rights both of his jaws, which were dislocated in an argument with his father-in-law, John Henry.

Shelbyville is enjoying a sensation at the poor house where the manager is charged with inhuman treatment of an imbecile under his care. It is charged that he has not had a change of clothing nor been washed or shaved for eight months.

At Columbus, on Tuesday night, three roughs wore arrested for drunkenness and were lodged in the jail. They at once began tearing up and breaking up everything they could, water pipes were torn out, basins broken and they were about to set fire to their mattresses when they were driven into their cells at the point of revolvers by the sheriff and assistants.

A little daughter of Geo. W. Young, of Rushville, was standing at the grate, a few evenings since, when her clothes caught fire and were burned from her person. Her hair was entirely burned, but strange to say, her injuries are but slight.

Typhoid fever and typhoid pneumonia are becoming prevalent around Bloomington. Judge Edwins's son from Mt. Vernon, this state, who was attending the University there, died with the former on Saturday, and his body was taken home by his mother and grandfather for burial.

An old German farmer named Tice Pincke, was found dead in the woods of Bald Knob, six miles north of Six-Mile Switch. He left home Sunday evening and not returning, search was made and he was found in the woods half a mile from his place. The old man had been complaining of heart disease, and it is thought he died of that disease.

Monday, at Rushville, George W. Young's little girl was standing in front of an open grate when her clothing caught fire, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames that were not extinguished until most of her clothing were burned from her body. It seems almost a miracle that she escaped alive, but she escaped with only trifling burns. All her hair was burned off. Mr. and Mrs. Young burned their hands severely in extinguishing the flames.

Constable Frank McChaster, of Columbus, and two other men got drunk last week and undertook to clean out the town, but failed, being locked up. When inside the corridors of the jail, they tore off two iron water basins, broke up the furniture, tore the cots out of six cells and tore them to pieces, together with the blankets and clothing, and then proceeded to set fire to them. Then the prisoners in the upper cells, who would have perished in the flames, began to pump water on the obstreperous prisoners below, when one man named Guinn was set upon and nearly beaten to death before the sheriff could restore order.

A horrible discovery was made last Friday evening in Howard & Read's woods, near Richmond, which has just come to light. For some days previous to the discovery a woman who gave her name as Fannie Parker was seen in the neighborhood and called at several houses asking for aid, as she was about to become a mother. As she evidently spoke the truth she was given no place to stay, but given something to eat. Friday evening a party who lives near was attracted by the bellowing of cows and the gathering of hogs to a certain spot in the woods. He went thither and found an arm and leg of a new-born infant, with every indication that a child had been born at that place, and that all the portions of the body except a leg and arm had been devoured by the hogs.

A party of hunters found the dead body of a man in the woods near Syracuse, O., Monday, with a bullet hole in his forehead and a revolver in his hand. He had apparently been dead about two weeks. There was nothing to identify him.

AN INCOME WITHOUT CARE.

By the combination method of operating in stocks a handsome income can be secured without care. Capital in any amount, from $10 to $50,000, may be used with equal proportionate success. By this system Messrs. Lowrence & Co., Bankers, New York, pool the orders of thousands of customers, of various sums, into one vast amount, and co-operate them under the most skillful management, dividing profits monthly. Each share-holder thus obtains all the advantages of the largest capital and experienced skill, and the percentage of profits is very great; $20 will pay $10 in 30 days; $250 will return $1,825 or 7½ percent on the stock, and so on, as the market varies. A prominent publisher of the Rock Island (Ill.) Daily Argus, made $104.15 on an investment of $20.00 in October. Hundreds of others are doing even better. Messrs. Lawrence & Co.'s new circular has "two unerring rules for success in stock operations" and full information, so that any one can deal in stocks. All kinds of bonds and stocks wanted. New government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, N. Y. City.

I Wish Everybody to Know.

Rev. George H. Thayer, an old citizen of this vicinity, known to every one as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, just this moment stopped in our store to say: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to Shiloh's Consumption Cure." It is having a tremendous sale over our counters, and is giving perfect satisfaction in all cases of lung diseases, such as nothing else has done.

LANDS! LANDS!

KANSAS TO THE FRONT!

The Leading Wheat State in the Union in 1878, and the Fourth Corn State—The Great Kansas Harvest in 1878 was Solid for the "Golden Belt."

The celebrated Grain Belt fo country, in the limestone section of Central Kansas, traversed by the Kansas Pacific.

The following statement are taken from the report of the Kansas state board of agriculture for 1878:

WHEAT! Kansas rises from the Eleventh Wheat State in 1877 to the First Wheat State in the Union in 1878, producing 26,518,958 bushels winter wheat, and 5,796,403 bushels spring wheat; total,

32,315,361

Bushels Wheat, with only one-eighth of the state under cultivation. The organized counties lying in the Golden Wheat Belt of the Kansas Pacific produced 13,335,324 bushels, or over 41 percent, and, including unreporting counties, fully 14,000,000 bushels, or 45 percent of the entire yield of wheat in the state, averaging 24 bushels to the acre, while the average for the state was 17 bushels per acre.

CORN! Kansas, the Fourth Corn State in the Uninon, in 1878, produced 89,324,971 bushels of Corn. Of which the Golden Grain Belt counties produced 27,399,055 bushels, or 31 percent, nearly one-third of the entire yield of the state, with an equally grand showing in all other departments of agriculture.

The foregoing facts show conclusively why

29 percent of the increase in population in the state during the past four years; and

40 percent of the increase in the population during the past year; and

43 percent of the increased acreage of wheat in the state in 1878, belonged to the "Golden Belt."

A Farm for Everybody.—65,000 farms—5,000,000 acres for sale by the Kansas Pacific—the best land in America, at from $2 to $6 per acre, one-quarter off for cash, or on 6 or 11 years credit at 7 percent interest. It don't take much money to buy a farm on the Kansas Pacific; $26 to $80 will secure 80 acres on credit, or $120 to $360 in cash will buy it outright.

GRAHAM'S CALL.

A Drunken Constable Sues the "Sentinel" for Libel,

Placing the Damage to His Character at $2,000.

The Hardest Exhibition of Check on Record.

This country, which was just recovering from a long seige of financial prostration, and whose inhabitants were looking forward with hopeful and wistful glances to the return of a period of prosperty, is now again destined to a bitter disappointment and a return to chaotic confusion. The trouble seems to arise from an alleged officer of the law, Geo. E. Graham, who has figured quite prominently in Allen county for some time past, and also in a benevolent institution situated in La Porte county. George now desires to figure in a court as a plaintiff by way of variety, as the following complaint, filed in the circuit court, will show:

State of Indiana, Allen county, ss.: Geo. E. Graham vs. Wm. R. Nelson, Samuel E. Morss and the SENTINEL Printing Company—Libel—In the Allen Circuit Court, November term, 1879; damages, $2,000.

The above-named plaintiff complains of the above-named defendants and says that on or about the 14th day of November, A. D. 1879, the above-named defendants uttered, published, and caused to be published, in a newspaper called the Fort Wayne Daily SENTINEL, of the plaintiff the following false and malicious libel:

"GRAHAM GOBBLED."

"Constable Graham was arrested Tuesday by Officers McCann and Trautman for disturbing the peace. Graham undertook to arrest a party of four young men last night without authority. They expressed their willingness to go with him, and when he got them almost to the calaboose, according to their statement he drew his revolver and billy and told them to 'skip.' Before that they say he also brandished his revolver in 'promiscous confusion.' The policeman took him in and one of his prisoners(?) gave bail for his appearance as a witness. Graham also put-up $10 for his appearance at 3 Wednesday afternoon, but not appearing his bail was forfeited."

Whereby the plaintiff is damaged in character and reputation to the amount of $2,000.

Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment for $2,000 and other proper relief.

(Signed.) GEO E. GRAHAM, Plaintiff.

The above is a very lucid and most able document, and shows a great deal of thought and care on the part of the plaintiff.

The mere thought that the plaintiff had a character to be injured is an idea that would never have struck the average American citizen. It is true he has a reputation, but he certainly could take no offense at anything that could be said about that, and the SENTINEL never presumed that it could be injured in any manner.

Mr. Graham's erratic career is already well known in this city, but this singular freak of his was entirely unlooked for, and the result of the suit will probably be as unexpected to Graham.

But the case must be heard and if Graham will be sober long enough to give in his testimony, a most singular array of facts will be presented.

The only unaccountable feature of the case is that Graham went to the trouble to enter suit through the court as it would be entirely in accordance with his line of conduct to have arrested the parties to the suit forthwith, without the customary process.

A few days ago he arrested a man and woman without a warrant and took them into Pratt's court for trial. Judge Pratt told a SENTINEL reporter that he couldn't tell which was the drunker, the constable or the prisoners, and he ushered the whole party out doors.

The SENTINEL will take occasion to show up this infernal rascal pretty thoroughly within the next few days. It is a public disgrace that such a man should be allowed to occupy even such an humble office as constable.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE AMATEUR PINAFORISTS.

There was a fair audience at the Academy last evening when Pinafore was repeated by the amatuers. The entertainment did not differ materially from that of Monday evening, excepting that the leading performers got a little careless and sailed away two or three times regardless of the orchestra and of time, and that others seemed spoiled by their success and the praise of the public, and overdid their business. Mrs. Evers received quite an ovation, and acted and sang even better than before, although her voice failed her once in the upper register. The chorus and orchestra were both excellent.

Pinafore Personals.

The Boatswain wasn't a bit Bashful.

Mrs. Evers makes Evers-onice a Josephine.

Fort Wayne has got the "Pinafore" fever badly.

There was no "ill-advised Sih-lerity" about the Dick Deadeye.

Page's Pinafore Party Propose to Perambulate and Perform.

Page isn't much of a singer but he displays a talented pair of calves.

"Little" Buttercup was about half a head taller than Capt. Corcoran.

The Gazette in its "Pinafore" criticism speaks of little Josie Page as "he."

Ford's Juveniles are playing at Pope's Theater, St. Louis, this week.

The "Pinafore" amateurs talk of bringing out "The Sorcerer" or "Trial by Jury."

The delineation of Sir Joseph Porter was the brightest Page in the amateur annals of Fort Wayne.

'Ras Chittenden dotes on "Pinafore." He has seen it eighteen times and says he has just begun.

Yarnelle seemed more at home on the stage than any of the other artists. He used to travel with the Peak family.

A fellow who saw "Pinafore" for the first time last night says it was all right, but that old "hardly ever" gag ought to be left out.

"Pinafore" has now been played in this city five times—twice by the Ford Company, once by the Haverly Church Choir and twice by the amatuers.

The Rev. Moffatt, of the First Presbyterian Church, attended "Pinafore" and seemed to enjoy it hugely, although a cloud passed over his face when he heard the baritone of his choir say repeatedly, "Dam-me, it's too bad."

INDICTED.

Six More Bills Returned by the Grand Jury.

Several Prisoners Ordered Released from Jail.

The grand jury to-day reported the following indictments: One against Henry Lash, petit larceny; one against James H. Lemay, burglary and larceny; one for maintaining a nuisance; one against Louis Traub, burglary and burglarious trespass; one against Peter Kelly, A and B with intent to commit robbery, etc; one against Franklin Welling for burglary and petit larceny.

The grand jury recommended the discharge from jail of Joseph H. Clark, Charles Diehm and Charles Sutlin.

The grand jury was discharged until first Monday in December and court adjourned until the same time.

The Overly case is set for December 8th, 1879.

THE RAILROADS.

Five hundred provision cars are being built at the Pittsburgh shops.

Indianapolis Journal: The Pennsylvania company has been outflanked, undoubtedly, by Jay Gould getting control of the Missouri Pacific and the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern road, as it leaves them only as a western outlet the C. & A. road. Yet it is the more evident that he is buying these lines to sell again at an advance. A half-witted man can see that the Wabash road cannot feed both of these western trunk lines, consequently he has no need of both, unless his scheme be to secure control of the Bee line and the I. & St. L., and thus have two through lines from the eastern trunk lines, one over the Wabash, the other via Indianapolis.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

The Wabash road earnings, according to the Commercial and Financial Chronicle, for the month of October were $663,923, against $517,618 in the corresponding month of 1878, and the gross earnings from January 1st to October 31st $4,171,220, against $4,210,818 during the corresponding period of 1878.

Weaver and McDaniels.

The following extract from the printed minutes of the A. M. E. conference held at Ypsilanti, Mich., on the 21st of last August, refers to and explains the Weaver-McDaniels matter. The church is very indignant at the statement made that Rev. McDaniels was reprimanded by the bishop:

A letter from Fort Wayne was read before the conference charging Bro. McDaniels with mal-administration for having expelled a member of his church contrary to the law of the church.

There being no one present to prosecute the charge, Bro. Titus moved to lay it on the table. A vote was taken on the motion and it was lost. J. M. Townsend then offered as a substitute for the whole matter, that it be remanded back to the Fort Wayne quarterly conference for final settlement.

Marriage Licenses.

Louis S. C. Schroeder and Loretta Bradway.

Henry Stephen and Sarah A. Small.

Paul B. Sommers and Sidney A. Sommers.

John Connett and Lucia French.

Benjamin F. Weaver and Mary C. Albright.

Charles Stahl came here from Coldwater, Mich. Cold water did not seem to agree with him, so he took in hot whisky, and that only made matters worse, for before morning he was affectionately gobbled up by a star of the night and taken to the calaboose. The pathetic and strong appeal he made to the mayor this morning touched his heart, and he told the erring Charles to make a straight break for Coldwater, and cold water alone, and he would yet live to be happy. He broke.

City Hospital.

The annual report of the City Hospital proves that institution to be a grand success. At the annual meeting the trustees appointed the 19th, 20th and 21st and also Thanksgiving day as public donation days. It is hoped that every lady in the city will respond to this most urgent call, by donating comforts much needed by the sick, such as jelly, canned fruit, domestic wine, sheets, pillow cases, towels and gray blankets. Dinner will be served each day at 25 cents, and it is hoped that every citizen will attend and thus aid this most worthy institution. 11b

Frank Beard, the Chalk-Talker, to illustrate his talk, makes a lot of pictures in the presence of the audience; and so rapidly do these appear as familiar objects, or change with a few strokes to entirely different forms, that the looker-on is always pleasantly excited to see "What that's going to be."

The annual donation days at the Home for the Friendless Women are Saturday, Nov. 22, and Thanksgiving the 27th. All who can assist in this Christian charity are cordially invited.

BY ORDER OF THE PRESIDENT.

Instruction and amusement combined at Frank Beard's lecture.

TALKED TO DEATH.

Louis Ridenaur, the Insane Juror, Dies at the Asylum.

Louis Ridenaur, the insane juryman in the Swayne case, who was taken to the asylum at Indianapolis last week, died at that place this morning. His remains will be taken to Monroeville at once.

Mr. Ridenaur was an old resident of this county and was always regarded as an estimable man and a good neighbor. He accumulated a large property near Monroeville, the result of his own industry and attention to business. For some time past his health has been failing slightly until the strain upon his mind in the Swayne case brought on the crisis and he succumbed to an already undermined constitution.

He leaves a wife and a tolerably large family, one of his daughters being the wife of J. B. Niezer, of Monroeville.

A trainining school for nurses has been established in connection with the City Hospital. Pupil nurses desiring admission can apply to the superintendent of the Hospital.

J. G. Fledderman's line of goods and his wonderfully low prices is the secret of his success in business. 11,7tf

People who work nights such as police officers, hack drivers, printers and gasstokers can have a regular dinner at the Globe from 6 in the evening until four in the morning for 15 cents.

Go to J. G. Fledderman for your Suits and Overcoats. 3c

Frank Beard's lecture fairly overflows with original humor, but it is needless to say to any familiar with the lecturer, there is nothing rude or indelicate. It is the most cultured audiences that have received the entertainment with the most appreciation.

Golden & Monahan, hats and caps.

Buffalo Courier: The caricature lecture by Frank Beard, of New York, was unusually well attended. He held his audience spell-bound to the close, and a more delighted audience never left the auditorium. His lecture, which was fully and freely illustrated by caricatures drawn at the moment, was brilliant with the sparks of his happy wit, and yet for those who preferred the sober thoughts there was an abundant supply. As an artist, Mr. Beard, in his branch, stands peerless, and he is entertaining and accomplished as a lecturer.

J. G. Fledderman displays prices of goods in his show windows. 3c

In his meanderings to-day, our worthy reporter happened to drop ins to the popular tailoring parlors of A. Foster, No. 80 Calhoun street. Here the reportorial optics were met on all sides by a bewildering array of fancy fall suitings. It would be impossible to convey to our readers any idea of the endless variety of fancy piece goods found here. Suffice it to say that A. Foster has the finest stock in the city and enjoys a deserved popularity on account of his matchless fits. We would advise our readers to call and see him. 9,17

GRAHAM'S GALL.

A Drunken Constable Sues the "Sentinel" for Libel,

Placing the Damage to His Character at $2,000.

The Hardest Exhibition of Cheek on Record.

This country, which was just recovering from a long seige of financial prostration, and whose inhabitants were looking forward with hopeful and wistful glances to the return of a period of prosperity, is now again destined to a bitter disappointment and a return to chaotic confusion. The trouble seems to arise from an alleged officer of the law, Geo. E. Graham, who has figured quite prominently in Allen county for some time past, and also in a benevolent institution situated in La Porte county. George now desires to figure in a court as a plaintiff by way of variety, as the following complaint, filed in the circuit court, will show:

State of Indiana, Allen county, ss.: Geo. E. Graham vs. Wm. R. Nelson, Samuel E. Morss and the SENTINEL Printing Company.—Libel.—In the Allen Circuit Court, November term, 1879; damages, $2,000.

The above-named plaintiff complains of the above-named defendants and says that on or about the 14th day of November, A. D. 1879, the above-named defendants entered, published, and caused to be published, in a newspaper called the Fort Wayne Daily SENTINEL, of the plaintiff the following false and malicious libel:

"GRAHAM GOBBLED."

"Constable Graham was arrested Tuesday by Officers McCann and Trautman for disturbing the peace. Graham undertook to arrest a party of four young men last night without authority. They expressed their willingness to go with him, and when he got them almost to the calaboose, according to their statement he drew his revolver and billy and told them to 'skip.' Before that they say he also brandished his revolver in 'promiscous confusion.' The policeman took him in and one of his prisoners(?) gave bail for his appearance as a witness. Graham also put up a bond for his appearance at 3 Wednesday afternoon, but not appearing his bail was forfeited."

Whereby the plaintiff is damaged in character and reputation to the amount of $2,000.

Wherefore plaintiff demands judgment for $2,000 and other proper relief.

(Signed.) GEO E. GRAHAM,
Plaintiff.

The above is a very lucid and most able document, and shows a great deal of thought and care on the part of the plaintiff.

The mere thought that the plaintiff had a character to be injured is an idea that would never have struck the average American citizen. It is true he has a reputation, but he certainly could take no offense at anything that could be said about that, and the SENTINEL never presumed that it could be injured in any manner.

Mr. Graham's erratic career is already well known in this city, but this singular freak of his was entirely unlooked for, and the result of the suit will probably be as unexpected to Graham.

But the case must be heard and if Graham will be sober long enough to give in his testimony, a most singular array of facts will be presented.

The only unaccountable feature of the case is that Graham went to the trouble to enter suit through the court as it would be entirely in accordance with his line of conduct to have arrested the parties to the suit forthwith, without the customary process.

A few days ago he arrested a man and woman without a warrant and took them into Pratt's court for trial. Judge Pratt told a SENTINEL reporter that he couldn't tell which was the drunker, the constable or the prisoners, and he ushered the whole party out doors.

The SENTINEL will take occasion to show up this infernal rascal pretty thoroughly within the next few days. It is a public disgrace that such a man should be allowed to occupy even such an humble office as constable.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE AMATEUR PINAFORISTS.

There was a fair audience at the Academy last evening when Pinafore was repeated by the amatuers. The entertainment did not differ materaliy from that of Monday evening, excepting that the leading performers got a little careless and sailed away two or three times regardless of the orchestra and of time, and that others seemed spoiled by their success and the praise of the public, and overdid their business. Mrs. Evers received quite an ovation, and acted and sang even better than before, although her voice failed her once in the upper register. The chorus and orchestra were both excellent.

Pinafore Personals.

The Boatswain wasn't a bit Bashful.

Mrs. Evers makes Evers-onice a Josephine.

Fort Wayne has got the "Pinafore" fever badly.

There was no "ill-advised Sih-lerity" about the Dick Deadeye.

Page's Pinafore Party Propose to Perambulate and Perform.

Page isn't much of a singer but he displays a talented pair of calves.

"Little" Buttercup was about half a head taller than Capt. Corcoran.

The Gazette in its "Pinafore" criticisms speaks of little Josie Page as "he."

Ford's Juveniles are playing at Pope's Theater, St. Louis, this week.

The "Pinafore" amateurs talk of bringing out "The Sorcerer" or "Trial by Jury."

The delineation of Sir Joseph Porter was the brightest Page in the amateur annals of Fort Wayne.

'Ras Chittenden dotes on "Pinafore." He has seen it eighteen times and says he has just begun.

Yarnelle seemed more at home on the stage than any of the other artists. He used to travel with the Peak family.

A fellow who saw "Pinafore" for the first time last night says it was all right, but that old "hardly ever" gag ought to be left out.

"Pinafore" has now been played in this city five times—twice by the Ford Company, once by the Haverly Church Choir and twice by the amatuers.

The Rev. Moffatt, of the First Presbyterian Church, attended "Pinafore" and seemed to enjoy it hugely, although a cloud passed over his face when he heard the baritone of his choir say repeatedly, "Dam-me, it's too bad."

INDICTED.

Six More Bills Returned by the Grand Jury.

Several Prisoners Ordered Released from Jail.

The grand jury to-day reported the following indictments: One against Henry Lash, petit larceny; one against James H. Lemay, burglary and larceny; one for maintaining a nuisance; one against Louis Traub, burglary and burglarious trespass; one against Peter Kelly, A and B with intent to commit robbery, etc; one against Franklin Welling for burglary and petit larceny.

The grand jury recommended the discharge from jail of Joseph H. Clark, Charles Diehm and Charles Sutlin.

The grand jury was discharged until first Monday in December and court adjourned until the same time.

The Overly case is set for December 8th, 1879.

THE RAILROADS.

Five hundred provision cars are being built at the Pittsburgh shops.

Indianapolis Journal: The Pennsylvania company has been outflanked, undoubtedly, by Jay Gould getting control of the Missouri Pacific and the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern road, as it leaves them only as a western outlet the C. & A. road. Yet it is the more evident that he is buying these lines to sell again at an advance. A half-witted man can see that the Wabash road cannot feed both of these western trunk lines, consequently he has no need of both, unless his scheme be to secure control of the Bee line and the I. & St. L., and thus have two through lines from the eastern trunk lines, one over the Wabash, the other via Indianapolis.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

The Wabash road earnings, according to the Commercial and Financial Chronicle, for the month of October were $663,923, against $517,613 in the corresponding month of 1878, and the gross earnings from January 1st to October 31st $4,171,220, against $4,210,818 during the corresponding period of 1878.

Weaver and McDaniels.

The following extract from the printed minutes of the A. M. E. conference held at Ypsilanti, Mich., on the 21st of last August, refers to and explains the Weaver-McDaniels matter. The church is very indignant at the statement made that Rev. McDaniels was reprimanded by the bishop:

A letter from Fort Wayne was read before the conference charging Bro. McDaniels with mal-administration for having expelled a member of his church contrary to the law of the church.

There being no one present to prosecute the charge, Bro. Titus moved to lay it on the table. A vote was taken on the motion and it was lost. J. M. Townsend then offered as a substitute for the whole matter, that it be remanded back to the Fort Wayne quarterly conference for final settlement.

Marriage Licenses.

Louis S. C. Schroeder and Loretta Bradway.

Henry Stephen and Sarah A. Small.

Paul B. Sommers and Sidney A. Sommers.

John Connett and Lucia French.

Benjamin F. Weaver and Mary C. Albright.

Charles Stahl came here from Coldwater, Mich. Cold water did not seem to agree with him, so he took in hot whisky, and that only made matters worse, for before morning he was affectionately gobbled up by a star of the night and taken to the calaboose. The pathetic and strong appeal he made to the mayor this morning touched his heart, and he told the erring Charles to make a straight break for Coldwater, and cold water alone, and he would yet live to be happy. He broke.

City Hospital.

The annual report of the City Hospital proves that institution to be a grand success. At the annual meeting the trustees appointed the 19th, 20th and 21st and also Thanksgiving day as public donation days. It is hoped that every lady in the city will respond to this most urgent call, by donating comforts much needed by the sick, such as jelly, canned fruit, domestic wine, sheets, pillow cases, towels and gray blankets. Dinner will be served each day at 25 cents, and it is hoped that every citizen will attend and thus aid this most worthy institution. 11b

Frank Beard, the Chalk-Talker, to illustrate his talk, makes a lot of pictures in the presence of the audience; and so rapidly do these appear as familiar objects, or change with a few strokes to entirely different forms, that the looker-on is always pleasantly excited to see "What that's going to be."

The annual donation days at the Home for the Friendless Women are Saturday, Nov. 22, and Thanksgiving the 27th. All who can assist in this Christian charity are cordially invited.

TALKED TO DEATH.

Louis Ridenaur, the Insane Juror, Dies at the Asylum.

Louis Ridenaur, the insane juryman in the Swayne case, who was taken to the asylum at Indianapolis last week, died at that place this morning. His remains will be taken to Monroeville at once.

Mr. Ridenaur was an old resident of this county and was always regarded as an estimable man and a good neighbor. He accumulated a large property near Monroeville, the result of his own industry and attention to business. For some time past his health has been failing slightly until the strain upon his mind in the Swayne case brought on the crisis and he succumbed to an already undermined constitution.

He leaves a wife and a tolerably large family, one of his daughters being the wife of J. B. Niezer, of Monroeville.

A trainining school for nurses has been established in connection with the City Hospital. Pupil nurses desiring admission can apply to the superintendent of the Hospital.

Frank Beard's lecture fairly overflows with original humor, but it is needless to say to any familiar with the lecturer, there is nothing rude or indelicate. It is the most cultured audiences that have received the entertainment with the most appreciation.
